rob such polite and peaceable persons.

With a sudden gesture, however, the pirate gave orders to turn up the passengers. The gentlemen all came up, and lastly, a lady passenger, who was going abroad for the benefit of her health. She was still handsome, though her eyes were dimmed and her cheek emaciated. I had often observed her attentively when she came on deck in the evening, or at twilight, and looked abroad upon the waters with a most dejected air, and sighing as if some her unhappy lover leaving the ship, the secret sorrow lay heavy at her heart. The last of the pirate crew, she rose up and sailors generally had observed this young staggered towards him. lady, and had very early decided that it was a case of disappointed love. As she now ascended to the deck, she looked around her with some surprise at all the strange faces on board of us, and then relapsed into her usual lstless condition, seting herself in the chair which the steward had placed for her, with an air of despondency and almost insensibility.

In the meanwhile, the pirate captain was engaged with one of the gentlemen passengers. This was a little diminutive, elderly man, who wore a long surtout that appeared to have been made for a giant of seven feet. As the sailors used to say, it crew, her captain and Caroline, became to fitted him, 'like a purser's shirt on a handspike.' This funny looking little man was dreadfully frightened. On first coming on deck, he prostrated himself at the feet of pirate, and began to beg for his life. He offered to give up all he possessed, and even to become a slave to his captors if they would promise not to hurt him.

'Why, my little man,' said the pirate chief, 'what sent you to sea? Upon my life, I should have thought that a man of your ideas would have stuck to terra firma like a barnacle to a Dutch galiot.'

'Forgive me this time, Captain -- only this once, and I engage never to trespass upon your territories again.'

'My territories! ha! ha! Not so bad that, I hope. I don't quite claim to be the monarch of the ocean. But would you be so very polite, if you saw me standing in a court house with a pair of darbies on my wrists! Come, come, confess, sir, that you would delight to see me hanged,

All this time the pirate sailors were swaggering about among the crew and passengers, slapping one and winking famili arly at another, and the little man in the oig coat roared out piteously: 'If I once more get where I can hear the cock crow in the morning and the gun fire at sundown, I will give all the geese leave to thrust out their necks and hiss at me for coming upon the great waters, where if you escape being swallowed by the leviathans of the deep, you are cut to pieces by the javelins of the terrible sea-king!'

REMARKS OF HON. D. S. REID, OF NORTH-CAROLINA,

In the Senate of the United States, June 11, on the proposition to send General Scott to Kansas to settle the difficulties

MR. REID said: Mr. President, it seems o me that this proposition is, to say the least of it, rather an extraordinary one. think the Execuive of this nation will see that the laws are faithfully executed. -I see no necessity either for curtailing the constitutional power of the Executive, or rammeling him in the disclarge of his duies when he has performed them with filelity to the Constitution. If the resolution now under consideration is, as the Senator from Kentucky says, one to carry out the war power, the Senate alone has nothing to do with it, for the Senate cannot make war. That requires both branches of the legislative department, and the concurrence of the Executive.

Suppose, then, that you were to send Genera Scott to Kansas in the character of a diplomatic agent: what is to be the result? Is there anything to be attained y it? The Senator from Kentucky and he Senator from New York have assumed that General Scott's going there will settle these difficulties. That is the very point to which I wish to direct attention. How are the difficulties to be settled?-How is he to do it? If the attainment of the end which these gentlemen seem to have in view could be accomplished by the proposition, we all, perhaps, might desire to see it done; but both those gentlemen, with all their ability, have utterly failed to show us how the sending of General Scott to Kansas is to settle the difficulties which are existing in that Territory. It is idle to talk about such a thing. These difficulties exist not only in Kansas, but beyond it: Massachusetts is the beadquarters. If Kansas were let alone, and the operation of the laws and government there was allowed to go on without interference, the question could be easily settled. You perceive, sir, the action in the States and in other quarters. Has it been shown that the Government of the United States has been insufficient to execute the laws in Kansas when it became necessary to afford the aid of the General Government to the authorities there? I apprehend not. Then, so far as military authority is concerned, the presence of General Scott seems not needed there. Whenever there is resistance to the laws of the country there-the laws of Kansas and the laws of the United States-I ap- to address the meeting. prehend the Executive will not be found unwilling to send the Army of the United States, as far as his constitutional power will enable him to do, to execute the laws.

One of the most striking facts of the present political campaign is the evident impossibility on the part of the opposition of finding throughout Mr. Buchanan's forty years' career as a public man, any personal point on which to attack him. WILLIAM A. HARNEY, TRAGIC OCCURRENCE.

Our Town was, on Wednesday last, the scene of a bloody trgedy. It seems to have grown out of the late trial of Spencer Sawyer for the murder of Wm. Charles in which Wm. Davis, Wm. C. Davis and Charles Davis, were the principal witnesses against him. During the forenoon of Wednesday last, Wm. Davis was sitting on a goods box in front of a store at the water, in company with one or two other gentlmen, when Sawyer approached towards him, in a threatening manner, with a large knife in his hand. No words passed between the parties. Davis, believing that Sawyer meditated his destruction, retreated into the store and Saw. yer is represented to have betrayed inand exhibiting a large knife. Davis, how- direct reference to their mental capacity Davises, armed with guns, went down tocharged his gun at him, killing him instant'y. The Davises then came up town, where they remained during the rest of the afternoon. They were also in town the next day-their residence being a mile

Be We refer the attention of those interested to the card of Messrs: Black and Briggs, in another column, advertising bricks for sale. It is well worth a visit to their yard to witness the operation of their brick machine. We enjoyed that pleasure on Saturday last, and, during a stay of forty-five minutes, eleven hundred bricks were turned off. The machine is a cunning and powerful contrivance. The clay is thrown in at the top-during its passage down is worked into a proper condition, and passes out on a platform below in the shape of six bricks at a clip, in such rapid succession that four or five bearers have to preserve a brisk trot, with the mould of six bricks in it as delivered, to keep up with the machine. We should say the machine will be capable of supplying a very large demand; and persons who may have use for bricks, in any quantity, would do well to call on Messrs. B. & B.

NORFOLK ELECTION.

An election of City Officers was held in Norfolk on Tuesday last, which resulted in the election of a K. N. Mayor, (the present incumbent is a K. N.) and 14 Democratic Councilmen to 13 K. N. Councilmen -a Democratic gain of twelve members of the Council! The Democrats also gained the Street Inspecter and Weigher of Hay. Among the Democratic Councilmen elected, we are pleased to recognize the name of our former townsman D. D. Simmons, AP Mr. Fillmore has returned to the United States, after a long absence among the foreigners. He avows his determination not to withdraw his name from the Canvass, unless requested to do so by those who nominated him. So far as his prospee's of election, are concerned, we regard it as quite immaterial whether be withdraws or not. If the Democratic party are beaten at all, it will not be by Mr. Fillmore, but by the Black Republicans.

Per contra, the Know-Nothing party are split all to pieces. Their Northern and Southern wings are at war with each other. They have separate forces and separate leaders. Whoever saw a party in worse condition for a contest, especially with the great Democracy of the country?

This is a very succinct but a very truthtwo parties at the present day. No honest man will deny that the K. N's are in a "bad way." They do not now pretendthe honest ones-that Know Nothingism is either united throughout the country, or the same North and South. Do they? the same with the Northern K. Let every man make up his own judgment. The farmer and mechanic can do so just as well, if no petter, than professional politicians. If the Democrats are all going as formerly, and if the K. N's cannot carry all the old line Whigs, how in the name of common sense are the K. N's to carry States for Fillmore that usually give Democratic votes? If the Democrats beat the opposition when that opposition was united, can't

CAROLINA. We have enjoyed a really pleasant enter. tainment in reading "the stray leaves of a little manuscript history of North Carolina." from the pen of our fellow-countyman, R. B. These "stray leaves" embrace the history of our State from 1584 down to the Convention tense excitement and thirst for vengeance, of 1835, and were written for the private by stamping his feet, gnashing his teeth, instruction of the author's children, with ever, got out of his way, came up town, The plan adopted is to give a brief historiprocured a gun, and went back to the wa- cal lesson, in language well adapted to the ter; but, not finding Sawyer, returned up understanding of children; and, in order town. Once, when I was a small boy, I was riding with an old gentleman along the public road in Pasquotank county, near Little River. When we were passing by the hill which is near Hall's Creek, he pointed to a large oak tree which stood upon the hill, and said: "The Legislature of North Carolina once met under that tree." The old gentleman then laughed, and added: "One of their laws was that the members of the Legislature should wear shoes if not stockings, and that they should not throw their bones under the tree when they eat their dinners."

HRESIDENTIAL MOVEMENTS.

Mr. Banks having declined the nomination of the anti-Fillmore Know-Nothing Convention, they have taken up John C Freemont the Black Republicon nominee! But they hung on to their vice Presidential nominee, Johnston of Pennsylvania, while the Black Republicans adhered to Mr. Dayton, of New Jersey. So it is Fremont and Johnston for the K. N's. and Fremont and Dayton for the Black Republicans! Here is the coalition of Know-Nothingism and Black Republicanism. Indeed, it said that the nomi. nation of Banks by the Northern K. N's was a mere trick, by which they gained time for consultation with the Black Republican Convention-flattered Banks and his friends, and hoped to sell out to the Black Republicans.

Mark the course of these national K N's at the North. They elected Banks speaker, and they nominated him for the Presidency. He declined the honor, and they openly coalesce with the Black Republicans! They are the same men who sat side by side with Southern Know-Nothings in the Philadelphia Convention.

A HARD HIT.

Senator Evans, of South Carolina, in a late speech defending his State against the aspersions of Mr. Sumner, made the follow-

In reply to the charge of Mr. Sumper. that one of the features of slavery was that it tolerated the separation of husband and wife, parent and child, Mr Evans said that he lived in a district where the number of slaves was great-even greater than that of the whites-but no such practice existed, and public sentiment never had tolerated any such inhumanity. He went on to detail one incident of the kind, however, in which a Northern man acted a conspicious p rt .--That Northen man was Mr. Albert Sumper, a brother of the Senator from Massachusetts. He had become interested in a large estate of slaves in South Carolina, which had been ordered to be sold for division and distribution; the order requiring them to be sold in families, according to the uniform practice. not only in that State, but we believe, in all the Southern States. There was one family of slaves, consisting of eight-the husband and wife and six children; the head of his family had been the favorite body servant of his deceased master. To the surprise and indignation of those present on the day of sale, the wife and her children were put up and sold without the however, that this was done at the instance of Mr. Sumner, who was interested as one of the distributors, and it was understood that he had procured it with the view of special favors. He did buy bim at a reduced price. But, soon after the sale, Mr. Sumper was found making efforts to sell him at an advanced price to any one that would purchase. No one would allow him to consumate his speculation, and he finally applied to the gentleman who had bought e wife and children. This gentleman bought him, but was forced to pay Mr Sumper fifty dollars for his bargain. Evans gave this incident to illustrate the habits and sentiments of Southern men on a subject which has been grossly misrepresented. The fact that it was the brother of Senator Sumner, who had made the charge against the inhumanity of Southern men, that sought thus to speculate on the separation of husband and father from his wife and children, gave to the incident a

BRIGHTLY IN CONNECTICUT. The Democratic ratification meeting in Hartford, Connecticut, on Friday evening was an enthusiastic affair. It took place in State House square. Bands of music and the Speakers discoursed from the balcony of the Aerican Hotel. It was estimated that 5000 people wer pressent, and they sent up lusty cheers as Messrs. Hamersly, Pratt, Deming, Hazard, Strong, Chapman, Morgan and Eaton successively addressed them. Three of these speakers-Col. Hazard, Hon, Charles Chapman and Mayor Deming -were national Whigs as long as that party had an organization. Col. H. said his only course was to act with the Demorracy against the opposing sectional factions. Mr. Chapman asked-"Why, sir, where shall I go under such circumstances as these? Where can I go, and where can every man who cares for his country go? The democratic party. with its broad national principles, now that other questions are settled on which some of us have differed, is the only party that we can join and honestly carry our views in a contest like this. Here we are -some of us certainly, and I think there are many more throughout the country -[Great cheering.] Here we will act in this struggle, if it be a struggle, and to me the result does not appear doubtful. But, whilst I shall vote for Buchanan and country, there are two things that I will not promise-first, I will not promise to second, I will not promise not to do so."

We do not approve of betting on elections, (says the Fayetteville Carolinian,) and hope all our friends will abstain from the practice; but here is an item which we clip from the Wilmington Journal, to show that somebody believes that Mr. Fillmore will not be elected:

"ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS TO BET .- That no man can name -three States that will vote for Millard Fillmore at the Presidential Election in November next.

MR. JOHN POOL IN EDENTON. EDENTON, May 30th 1856.

Perhaps it may be known to your readers, Mr. Editor, that John Pool, Esq. was the representative of the K. N. party of this District in its National (?) Convention assembled in Philadelphia in February last. In his official capacity Mr. Pool must be regarded as the spokesman of his party, and whatever he may say with regard to the platform then and there adopted received as unquestioned authority.

A K. N. convention met in this place esterday to appoint a K. N. Elector, &c., &c.! Mr. Pool, with befitting dignity, submitted an account of his stewardship which I propose detailing to you in as concise and brief a manner as possible.

As this Convention was not the place o declaim against Democracy (how generous, how noble in Mr. Pool!) he would speak of matters appertaining solely to his own party He had heard it said that the 12th section had been repealed, the Catholic test abrogated, and a Catholic delegation from Louisiana admitted into the Convention of which he had the honor to be a member! As to the first charge it was true, but not wholly true; and as to the last two they were barefaced fulsehoods!

cause it endorsed out-and-out the Kansar (as he calls it-foreign pronunciation you see!) and Nebraska bill, the squatter-sovereigaty feature of which was in direct antagonism with one of the "paramount K. N. party as represented by Mr. Rayner in the Convention, which adopted this 12th section was more uncompromising (if possible) in its opposition to foreigners than it is now; and is it even plausible that if Mr. Rayner had seen after one year's careful consideration of the merits of the Nebraska bill, (approved in May 54-Convention met June '55,) I say if he had seen that it sanctioned anything directly militating against his political faith. is teven plausible that he would have endorsed it? Yet it seems he did, and offered it to Mr. Pool, who swallowed it! Mr. ool by his late course then stultifies himself and Mr. Rayner, and confesses that in advocating the 12th section for a twelvemonth he was misleading his blind and unsuspicious followers! The whole truth is this. Mr. Pool wants an excuse for his consent to the repeal of the 12th section. which he knows to be a concession to freesoilism, and seeks it in this miserable subterfuge of the squatter sovereignty feature (as he is pleased to term it) of the Kansas-Nebraska bill! Was ever attempt more glaring to bamboozle a confiding constituency! I prefer to be backed in what I say, Mr. Editor!

Listen to Mr. Albert Pike of Arkansas. who was in the Convention with Mr. Pool. and, who utterly repudiates the platform then adopted, which Mr. Pool so sirenuously undertakes to defend!

"It is said that the platform is substanially the same as the old one. Then how to his constituents. Verily what will the came it to be offered by a freesoiler from Illinois, who declared after it was adopted that he would vote for the admission of no State admitting slavery? If it suits him. it cannot suit me !

Hear him again! (And Mr. Pike hated foreigners quite as intensely as Mr. Pool. I dare say!' Speaking of this very 12th section, the repeal of which Mr. Pool sustains on account of its endorsing a bill which favored foreigners, he says :-Once upon it and deeming it eminently right in principle it became impossible for me to abandon it, or consent to its modification !"

What says Mr. Pool now? Mr Pike versus Mr. Pool! Justt here he entered into a defence of his party from the charge f abolitionism /

As to the second assertion that the Catholic test had been abolished, he declared that "the bonds had only been drawn the stronger." That his party stood as un-mitigatedly opposed to Romanism as ever He here elicited the appiause of an appreciative audience by unblushingly inquiring if there was a Roman Catholic Priest in the Convention, as he had heard they were accustomed to frequent conventions held in this place!

After explaining the religion or no religon of the Louisiana delegation, which I deem unimportant and clearing other rubbish which obstructed his political pathway, with all the modesty of a maiden of sixteen summers, he feared he was tiring his au dience, which bade him "go on." did'nt tease him much, before, true to his instincts, he went on in a labored effort to cast the burden of Banks' election from his own to the shoulders of the Democratic party. Bear with me Mr. Editor, as I track him here! He first plead as a justification of the South Americans in not coal seing with the Democrats, to elect a Union man, the resolution of the latter in which the former were unjustly and without provocation denounced; and here let fall some obiter dicta, which may prove interesting; declaring that in his opinion any South American, who voted with the democrats in the face of this resolution, stood disgraced before bis constituents. Col. Paine voted with Democrats on the final ballot for Aiken-the Democrats secretly desired the election of Banks from the very jump, which he very ingeniously endeavored, but failed to

His argument was, the resolution offered by Messrs. Clingman and S. A. Smith, proposing the plurality rule-which if adopted they knew would elect Mr. Banks. Dear Sir: In looking over the last issue of the Sentinel I see the Editor comes down on the Democrats of Pasquotank and specially on those of Perquimans with a abored effort to make 'em full mighty bad, using such language as I assure you sir is not calculated to promote the interest of Mr. Pool, their candidate for the senate. But however, let him rip! Proposals for Naval Supplies.

NAVY DEPARTMENT. Bureau of Const'n, Equip't, and Repair,
June 2, 1856.

EALED PROPOSALS to furnish Naval Supplies for the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1857, will be received at this bureau until 3 o'clock, p. m., of the 8th day of July next. These proposals must be endorsed "Proposals for Naval supplies, Bureau of Construction, &c.," that they may be distinguished from other business

The materials and articles embraced in the classes named are particularly described in printed schedules, any of which will be fur-nished to such as desire to offer, on application o the commandants of the respective navyards, or to the navy agent nearest thereto, and those of all the yards upon application to this bureau. This division into classes being for the convenience of dealers in each, such porions only only will be furnished as are actually equired for such bids. The commandant and navy agent of each station will have a copy of the schedules of the other yards, for examination only, from which it may be judged whether it will be desirable to make application for them.

Offers must be made for the whole of a class at any yard upon one of the printed schedules, or in strict conformity therewith, or they will not be considered. All articles must be of the very best quality, conformable to sample, size, &c.; to be delivered in good order and in suitable vessels and packges, as the case may be, at the expense and risk f the contractor, and in all respects subject to the inspection, measurement, count, weight, &c., of the yard where received, and to the entire satisfaction of the commandant thereof.

Bidde s are referred to the yards for samples and a particular description of the articles; and, all other things being equal, preference will be given to articles of American manufacture. Every offer, as required by the law of 10th August, 1846, must be accompanied by a written guarantee, the forms of which are herewith

Those only whose offers may be accepted will be notified, and the contract will be forwarded as soon thereafter as practicable, which they will be required to execute within ten days after its receipt at the post office or navy agency named by them.

Surcties in the full amount will be required to sign the contract, and their responsibility certified to by a United States district judge, United States district attorney, collector, or navy agent. As additional security, twenty per centum will be withheld from the amount of the bills until the contract shall have been completed, and eighty per centum of each bill, approved in triplicate by the commandant of the respective yards, will be paid by the navy agent rithin thirty days after its presentation to him It is stipulated in the contract that, if default be made by the parties of the first part in delivering all or any of the articles mentioned of the quality and at the time and places provided, then, and in that case, the contractor and his sureties will forfeit and pay to the United States as liquidated damages a sum of money equal to twice the amount of the contract prices therein agreed upo i as the price to be paid in case of the actual delivery thereof, which liquidated dama ges may be recovered or retained from time to time as they accrue from the said parties of the first part or either of them.

Classes Nos. 1, 2, 4, 6, 7, 8—to be delivered one-fourth part on or before the 15th May, onefourth part by the 20th July, one-fourth part by the 20th September, and the remainder by the 1st Classes Nos. 3 and 9-the whole by the 15th May, 1857. The remaining ro before the 1st December next, one-fourth part part on or before the 1st April, and the remainder on or before the 30th June, 1857, comprising at each delivery a due proportion of each article: Class 10, and all following, if additional quantities of any of the articles named therein are de-IE co-partnership heretofore existing and conditions previous to the expiration of the fiscal year, upon receiving a notice of fifteer rm of Kuox & Jackson is this day days from the bureau, the commandant of the yard, or navy agent.

As the law requires the prepayment of postage persons desiring the commandant of the yard or , who will be glad to see all of their the navy agent to send them by mail schedules stomers, and as many more as may of such classes as they desire should enclose in their application postage stamps to insure their from will please call on T. D. Knox for such schedules will not require prepayment.

FORM OF OFFER.

I, ____, of ____, State of _____, hereby agree to furnish and deliver at the respective navy yards all the articles named in the classes hereunto annexed, agreeably to the provisions of the schedules therefor, and in conformity with the advertisement of the Bureau OST, on the 31st of May, 1856, ei- of Construction, &c., of June 2, 1856.

Should my offer be accepted, I request to be addressed at , and the contract forwarded to the navy agent at , or to , for signature and certificate.

(Signature.) The schedule which the bidder encloses must be pasted to his offer, and each of them signed by him. Opposite each article in the schedule the price must be set, the amount carried out, the aggregate footed dated Aug. 1, 1853, payable six up for each class, and the amount likewise written

FORM OF GUARANTEE. The undersigned, ——, of ——, in the State of ——, and —— of ——, in the 14, 1856; one of Rev. W. Kone, the foregoing bid of _____ for any of the classes therein named be accepted, that he or they lst Jan 1851. Payment upon will, within ten days after the receipt of the contract at the post office named or navy agent designated, execute the contract for the same with good and sufficient sureties; and in the case said shall fail to enter into contract as afore-said, we guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of the said - and that which may be accepted. Signatures of two guaranters. \ A. B. C. D. (Date.) Witness.

I hereby certify that the above namedere known to me as men of property and able to make good their guarantee. (Signature.)

Waiters in sets and dozens, Sauce Pans,

The Committee on Resolutions, by their chairman, Mr. Hallett of Massachusetts, submitted the following report, which was adopted by the Convention :

Resolved. That the American Democracy place their trust in the intelligence, the patriotism, and the discriminating justice of the American people.

Resolved, That we regard this as a distinctive feature of our political creed, which we are proud to maintain before the world, as the great moral element in a form of government springing from and upheld by the popular will; and we contrast it with the creed and practice of Federalism, under whatever name or form, which seeks to palsy the will of the constituent, and which conceives no imposture too monstrous for the popular credulity.

Resolved, therefore, That, entertaining these views, the Democratic party of this Union, through their Delegates assembled in a general Convention, coming together in a spirit of concord, of devotion to the doctrines and faith of a free representative government, and appealing to their fellow citizens for the rectitude of their intentions, renew and re-assert before the American people, the declarations of principles avowed by them, when, on former occasions, in general Convention, they have presented their candidates for the popular suffrages.

1. That the Federal Government is one of limited power, derived solely from the Constitution; and the grants of power made therein ought to be strictly construed by all the departments and agents of the government; and that it is inexpedient and dangerous to exercise doubtful constitutional powers.

2. That the Constitution does not confer upon the Government the power to commence and carry on a general system of internal improvements.

3. That the Constitution does not confer authority upon the Federal Government, directly or indirectly, to assume the debts of the several States, contracted for local and internal improvements, or other State purposes; nor would such assumption be just or expedient:

4. That justice and sound policy forbid the Federal Government to foster one branch of industry to the detriment of any other, or to cherish the interests of one portion to the injury of another portion of our common country; that every citizen and every section of the country has a right to demand and insist upon an equality of rights and privileges, and to complete and ample protection of persons and property from domestie violence for foreign aggression.

5. That it is the duty of every branch of Government to enforce and practice the most rigid comomy in conducting our publie affairs, and that no more revenue ought to be raised than is required to defray the necessary expenses of the Government, and for the gradual, but certain extinction of the public debt.

6. That the proceeds of the public lands ought to be sacredly applied to the national objects specified in the Constitution; and that we are opposed to any law for the distribution of such proceeds among the States, as alike inexpedient in policy and repugnant to the Constitution.

7. That Congress has no power to charter a national bank; that we believe such an institution one of deadly hostility to the best interests of the country, dangerous to our republican institutions and the liberties of the people, and calculated to place the business of the country within the control of a concentrated money power, and above the laws and the will of the people; and that the results of Democratic legislation in this and all other financial measures upon which issues have been made between the two political parties of the country, have demonstrated to candid and practical men of all parties, their soundness, safety, and utility, in all business pur-

8. That the separation of the moneys of the Government from banking institutions is indispensable for the safety of the funds of the Government, and the rights of the

9. That we are opposed to taking from the President the qualified veto power, by which he is enabled, under restrictions and responsibilities amply sufficient to guard the public interests, to suspend the passage of a bill whose merits cannot secure the approval of two-thirds of the Senate and House of Representatives, until the judgment of the people can be obtained thereon, and which has saved the American people from the corrupt and tyrannical domination of the Bank of the United States, and from a corrupting system of general internal improvements.

10. That the liberal principles embodied by Jefferson in the Declaration of Independence, and sanctioned in the Constitution, which makes ours the land of liberty, and the asylum of the oppressed of every nation, have ever been cardinal principles in the Democratic faith, and every attempt to bridge the privilege of becoming citizens and the owners of soil among us, ought to be resisted with the same spirit which swept the alien and sedition laws from our statute books.

And whereas, since the foregoing declaration was uniformly adopted by our predecessors in National Conventions, an adverse political and religious test has been secretly organized by a party claiming to be exclusively American, it is proper that the American Democracy should clearly define its relations thereto, and declare its determined opposition to all secret political societies, by whatever name they may successful example. be called.

Resolved, That the foundation of this Union of States having been laid in and its prosperity, expansion and pre-eminent example in free Government, built upon entire freedom in matters of religious concernment and no respect of persons in regard to rank or place of birth, no party can justly be cordence with American principles, which blases its exclusive organization upon religious opinions and aecidental birth-place.

lar government. the sectional issue of domestic slavery, and once with relations that it may suit our

1. That Congress has no power under the Constitution, to interfere with or control the domestic institutions of the several States, and that such States are the sole and proper judges of everything appertaining to their own affairs, not prohibited by the Constitution; that all efforts of the abolitionists or others, made to induce Congress to interfere with questions of slavery. or to take incipient steps in relation thereto, are calculated to lead to the most alarming and dangerous consequences; and that all such efforts have an inevitable tendency to diminish the happiness of the people. and endanger the stability and permanency of the Union, and ought not to be countenanced by any friend of our political in-

2. That the foregoing proposition cov-ers, and was intended to embrace, the whole subject of slavery agitation in Congress; and therefore, the Democratic party of the Union, standing on this national platform, will abide by and adhere to a faithful execution of the acts known as the Compromise Measures, settled by the Congress of 1850; "the act for reclaining fugitives from service or labor," included; which act being designed to :arry out an express provision of the Constitution, cannot, with fidelity thereto, be repealed or so changed as to destroy or impair its effi-

3 That the Democratic party will resist all attempts at renewing, in Congress or out of it, the agitation of the slavery question, under whatevor shape or color the attempt may be made.

4. That the Democratic party will faithfully abide by and uphold the principles laid down in the Kentucky and Virginia resolutions of 1798, and in the report of Mr. Madison to the Virginia Legislature, in 1799; that it adopts those principles as constituting one of the main foundations of its political creed, and is resolved to carry them out in their obvious meaning

And that we may more distinctly meet he issues on which a sectional party, subsisting exclusively on slavery agitation, now relies to test the fidelity of the people, North and South, to the Constitution and the Union-Resolved, That claiming fellowship with and desiring the co-operation of all who regard the preservation of the Union, under the Constitution, as the paramount issue, and repudiating all sectional parties and platforms concerning domestic slavery, which seek to embroil the States and incite to treason and armed resistance to law in the Territories, and whose avowed purposes, if consummated, must end in civil war and disunion, the American democracy recognise and adopt the principles conained in the organic laws establishing the Territories of Kansas and Nebraska, as embodying the only sound and safe solution of the slavery question upon which the great national idea of the people of this whole country can repose in its determined conservatism of the Union; non-interference by Congress with slavery in

2. That this was the basis of the Church, Norfolk, 50c. Compromise of 1850, confirmed by both the Democratic and Whig parties in National Conventions, ratified by the people in the election of 1852, and rightly applied to the organization of Territories

3. That by the uniform application of this democratic principle to the organization of Territories and to the admission of new States, with or without domestic slavery, as they may elect, the equal rights of all the States will be preserved intact, the original compacts of the Constitution maintained inviolate, and the perpetuity and expansion of this Union ensured to its ut most capacity of embracing, in peace and harmony, every future American State that may be constituted or annexed with a re publican form of government.

Resolved. That we recognise the right ing Kansas and Nebraska, acting through derson $1,50 the legally and fairly expressed will of the m jority of actual residents, and wneneve the number of their inhabitants justifies it to form a constitution, with or without domestic slavery, and be admitted into the Union upon terms of perfect equality with the

Resolved, finally, that in view of the condition of popular institutions in the Ol World, and the dangerous tendency of sectional agitation, combined with the attempt to enforce civil and religious disabilities against the right of acquiring and en joying citizenship in our own land, the his and sacred duty is devolved with increase responsibility upon the Democratic party this country, as the part, of the Upion uphold and maintain the rights of every State, and thereby the Union of the States, and to sustain and advance among us constitutional liberty, by continuing to resist all monopolies and exclusive legislation for the benefit of the few, at the expense of the many, and, by vigilant and constant adherence to those principles and the compromises of the constitution, which are broad enough and strong enough to embrace and uphold the Union as it was, the Union as it is, and the Union as it shall be in the full expansion of the energies and capacities of this great and progressive people.

First-Resolved, That there are questions connected with the foreign policy of invited to give me an early call. the country which are inferior to no domestie question whatever. MILK LEG. DREADFUL ULCER-PALPITA TION, WEAKNESS-MOTHER AND DAUGH-TER CURED-HAMPTON'S TINCTURE

TRIUMPHANT HUNDREDS OF OUR OWN CITIZENS, same Testimony.

Read the following certificate from a lady, en

lorsed by Postmaster E. P. Cooper:
CAPON BRIDGE, Hampshire county, Va., March 1, 1854. Mr. E. P. Cooper.—Dear Sir: Agreeable to your request, and my own desire to benefit the afflicted, I hereby certify the great relief I re-ceived from the use of HAMPTON'S VEGETA BLE TINCTURE.

I was taken with a violent palpitation, or rather fluttering of the heart, which continued several days; it seemed "ough my heart had almost forgotten its office. The family became alarmed and procured a bottle of this valuable medicine, and before I had taken near one bot-tle of this valuable medicine, and before I had taken near one bottle of this TINCTURE OF HAMPTON'S I was entirely relieved. This is the third instance of relief in my fami-

y by the use of this valuable medicine. Two or three years ago, I was laid up with ulceration of my ankle, from the effect of what is usu ally called a milk leg. I had lost all taste and appetite; and the sore which was some four inches up and down, and half-way around my ankle, rejected every effort to heal it, until I procured HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINC-TURE, one bottle of which restored my health healed my ankle, and I am freer from swelling than the last thirty years.

Again, one of my daughters was very low from severe disentery, and when she began to sit up her feet commenced swelling which in creased every day, to be very painful-she use a bottle of Hampton's Tincture; the pains were assuaged, the swellings subsided and her health returned-we kept her legs bandaged with strips of woollen until her strength returned. I have been thus particular, that others, der similar circumstances, might be induced to avail themselves of this remedy.

Yours with respect, ELIZABETH EDWARDS.

I do hereby certify that I am personally acquainted with Mrs. Edwards, and can safely re ommend the above statement to be co. -ect. E. P. COOPER, Postmaster, Capon Bridge, Hampshire co., Va.

REV. VERSON ESKRIDGE, U. S. N.) Pertsmouth, Va., Aug., 18, 1851. E. Boush .- Sir, While I am in general opposed to Patent Medicines, candor compels ne to state, that I have great confidence in the virtues of HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TING TURE. For several months past I have used in my family, and in dispepsia, loss of appetit dizziness and general debility, with entire su cess. So far as my experience extends there fore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted, as a safe and efficient remedy. am respectfully yours VERNON ESKRIDGE, Chaplain U. S. N. Portsmouth, Va., Aug. 18, 1852.

THE FEMALE SYSTEM. LIVER COMPLAINT, DEBILITY. Extract from James Harris. Esq's Letter, Alexan dria, Va.

After speaking of wonderful cures on himself he says: "Mrs. H. has been suffering with the liver complaint and with debility, constantly complaining, from weakness, through her whole system. She now enjoys better health than for thirty years, being entirely restored by the use of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture.' DISEASED SIDE, BREAST AND EYES. Extract from a Letter from J. Grimes, Esq.
